

$1000 Profit in 5 Days!!

It's called REORDER MANIA!

Who can do this? Everyone! Even the newest consultant can do this because it is so easy!! What is it? You have been selected to participate in a game called reorder mania where you have 5 days to sell 200 ten-dollar items! How do you do that? You get out your brochures and sales ticket, and a piece of notebook paper and number to 200!) Use the following words to get your co-workers, neighbors, friends, and family on your team!

Hi _____ I am so excited about a company contest I'm in! I have been selected by my unit to participate in a game called Reorder Mania! I am working on selling 200 $10 items in five days! I can't do it alone so I am selecting 10 friends to help me out! And if you help me, you get free product! All you do is take my brochures for 4 days, tell everyone you are helping me out in a contest to sell as many items as possible! Let them know that your goal is either 10 or 20 or 30 items and that each $10 in retail counts as an individual item. Ask them to take a quick look and see what they might like to get. For helping me out, I'll give you $10 worth of free product for selling 10 items, $20 free for selling 20 items, $30 free for selling 30 items etc. The sky is the limit and remember, every $10 of retail counts as one item. You could find either 10 people who each buy $10, or just 5 women spending $20! I will pick up your orders on _____ and then you can tell me what you want for your FREE products. So _____, can I stop by today to bring over the brochures?
